

ELK HAVEN EQUESTRIAN CENTER
1ST CHANCE HORSE TRIALS AUGUST 14TH
AND
2ND CHANCE HORSE TRIALS, AUGUST 15TH

INFORMATIONAL

TWO SEPARATE HORSE TRIALS THAT ALLOW YOU TO COME FOR ONE OR
 SPEND THE WEEKEND-RIDE, SCHOOL AND RERIDE OR MOVE-UP

All dressage is outdoors in a large dirt arena./ All x-country courses include hills, water, ditches and banks or options for such in a forested area.

Almost Training: training level questions asked at Novice height, includes,; coffin, corner, combination and more.

Dressage: 2010 USEF Training level A	X-Country: 15-19 fences approx 2'11''''	Stadium Fences: approx 2'11''
---	--	----------------------------------

Novice: A very inviting x-country course but still asks the Novice level questions including skinnies.

Dressage: 2010 USEF Novice Test A	X-Country: 12-17 fences approx 2'9 -2'11''''	Stadium Fences: approx 2' 10''
--------------------------------------	---	-----------------------------------

Beginning Novice: A very inviting x-Country course but still challenging at this level

Dressage: 2010 USEF BN Test B	X-Country: 10-15 fences approx 2'6''	Stadium Fences: approx 2'6''
----------------------------------	---	---------------------------------

Moving Up: : A very inviting x-Country, straightforward jumping efforts, includes water, banks, and ditches.

Dressage: 2010 USEF BN Test A	X-Country: 9-14 fences approx 2'0''	Stadium Fences: approx 2'0''
----------------------------------	--	---------------------------------

Hopeful : A very inviting X-Country course, straightforward jumping efforts including small banks, ditch, and water. ENCOURAGE YOU TO TROT THE COURSE.

Dressage: 2007 USDF Intro Level Test B	X-Country: 7-10 fences 12'-18''	/Stadium Fences: 12''-18''
---	------------------------------------	----------------------------

MORE INFORMTION TO FOLLOWÍ